

ARKB

ARK 21Shares Bitcoin ETF

Factsheet as of June 30, 2024

WHY ARKB?

Growth Potential

Bitcoin was the first decentralized currency and is the largest digital asset by market cap (at over $1,200b*). It is well established as a digital store of value with a broad user-base and liquidity. ARKB offers a registered vehicle for this long-term strategic holding.

Registered Exposure to Bitcoin

ARKB provides exposure to bitcoin which is kept in cold storage¹ by one of the largest crypto custodians, offering greater protection than custody options available to individual investors.

Tool For Diversification

Add diversification to a portfolio by adding an asset with low correlation to traditional assets.

Exposure without Complexity

Access to one of the leading digital assets without mastering arcane details of how to trade or store them.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund seeks to track the performance of bitcoin, as measured by the performance of the CME CF Bitcoin Reference Rate – New York Variant (the "Index")², adjusted for the Trust's expenses and other liabilities.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE

The Trust is not an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a commodity pool for purposes of the Commodity Exchange Act. Shares of the Trust are not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds. Please see bottom of this factsheet for additional disclosures. ARKB is not suitable for all investors. An investment in ARKB is subject to a high degree of risk, has the potential for significant volatility, and could result in significant or complete loss of investment.

² The CME CF Bitcoin Reference Rate – New York Variant (BRRNY) is a once-a-day benchmark index price for Bitcoin. Each day, the BRR aggregates the trade flow of major bitcoin spot exchanges during a specific one-hour calculation window from 3-4PM ET. This one-hour window is then partitioned into 12, five-minute intervals, where the BRR is calculated as the equally-weighted average of the volume-weighted medians of all 12 partitions.

ASSET ALLOCATION

* Portfolio asset allocation is subject to change, and should not be considered as investment advice or a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any particular digital asset

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. There is no assurance that the Trust will generate a profit for investors. As the Trust is subject to a high degree of risk, it may not be suitable for all investors.

The Trust is not an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a commodity pool for purposes of the Commodity Exchange Act. Shares of the Trust are not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds. These investments are not suitable for all investors. Trusts focusing on a single asset generally experience greater volatility. BTC has experienced periods of extreme volatility, which could negatively impact the Trust. There are special risks associated with short selling and margin investing. Please ask your financial advisor for more information about these risks.

Bitcoin is a relatively new asset class, and the market for bitcoin is subject to rapid changes and uncertainty. Bitcoin is largely unregulated and bitcoin investments may be more susceptible to fraud and manipulation than more regulated investments. Bitcoin is subject to unique and substantial risks, including significant price volatility and lack of liquidity, and theft. The value of an investment in the Trust could decline significantly and without warning, including to zero.

Bitcoin is subject to rapid price swings, including as a result of actions and statements by influencers and the media, changes in the supply of and demand for bitcoin, and other factors. There is no assurance that bitcoin will maintain its value over the long-term.

Failure by the Trust's Bitcoin Custodian to exercise due care in the safekeeping of the Trust's bitcoin could result in a loss to the Trust. Shareholders cannot be assured that the Bitcoin Custodian will maintain adequate insurance with respect to the Bitcoin held by the custodian on behalf of the Trust.

The Trust is not actively managed and will not take any actions to take advantage, or mitigate the impacts, of volatility in the price of bitcoin. An investment in the Trust is not a direct investment in bitcoin. Investors will also forgo certain rights conferred by owning bitcoin directly.

Shares of the Trust are generally bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Trust. Only Authorized Participants may trade directly with the Trust and only large blocks of Shares called "creation units." Your brokerage commissions will reduce returns.

Shares in the Trust are not FDIC insured and may lose value and have no bank guarantee.

This material must be accompanied or preceded by a prospectus. Carefully consider the Trust's investment objectives, risk factors, and fees and expenses before investing. For further discussion of the risks associated with an investment in the Trust please read the Trust's prospectus.
